

Tomáš Chvojka is Gearbox Production technical operations manager and expert. With extensive experiences from the major sports events not only in Czech Republic but also abroad he is the right person to bring exact technology solution for any production level.

Tomáš works mostly as vision mixer during live TV sports productions and was responsible for major sports events planning. His goals was i.e. IBU World Cup and World Chamionships in biathlon in Nove Mesto na Morave 2011 and 2012, many FIS Nordic skiing and ski jumping World Cups and also cross country section of FIS Nordic skiing World Championship 2009 in Liberec.

Tomáš was member of olympic hostbroadcaster TV operations in 2004 Athens (football), 2008 Beijing (hockey), 2012 London (hockey) and 2016 Rio (Canoe).